Meet Your OYF Board Member: Bonnie Walker

BIOGRAPHY

Bonnie is a licensed clinical social worker, Navy Veteran and the CEO/owner of Orchid Island Wellness and Counseling in Vero Beach, Florida.

She is professionally educated at Columbia University School of Social Work in Health, Mental Health, and Disabilities, and FAU in Social Work with a minor in Child Welfare.

She additionally has a background of 23 years in business practice management and marketing; and leading advocate identifying mental health services for veterans adversely impacted by non-combat trauma through the MST Survivor Project.

She is the mother of 4 adult daughters who were trained in their formative years in Orchestra with one of them working under the direction of Richard Ballinger. Bonnie is a long-time ally for music education for children and youth. She recognizes the significant role music has on a child's reading, social skills, self esteem, and their overall mental health through the course of their development as well as the community at large. Bonnie currently serves as the Secretary of the Ocean Youth Foundation.
